RUSSIA AND CHINA.

The 'Civilising Mission.'

The Tientsin correspondent of The Standard wrote on the 12th February:—
When she started the Siberian Railway, and afterwards, whilst she was gradually increasing her army in Manchuria, Russia was at some pains to lay stress on the great work of civilisation she had undertaken;
and there have not been wanting these,
even in North China, who have caught the infection, and argued that the Russians in Manchuria were better than Anarchy.
As it not infrequently happens that such theorists do the most harm and are the most active in disseminating their ideas, too much publicity cannot be given to the actual facts of the case. Home readers are familiar with statements about Chinese corruption, and Chinese morality is universally regarded as representing the lowest ethical standard among even Eastern Powers. It is, however, to be feared that China can give Russia in Manch

SOLDIERS' FIGHT IN PEKING.

On Easter Sunday in the Capital some German soldiers and Austrians (chiefly Dalmatians from the Adriatic) were drinking in a friendly manner in a native-kept canteen, opposite the glass in front of the Austrian barracks. A German sang a song to which an Austrian took objection; and a small tavern-melée occurred, in the course of which the Germans put the Austrians out. Next morning the Austrians told a German it would be their turn to-day, and accordingly during the afternoon the row was raised again in the same canteen, but for no reasonable cause. It is not quite certain, but it is said the Austrians or some of them had weapons, but the Germans, in accordance with General von Rohnschmidt's orders, were without side arms. This time the Germans were overpowered and turned out, but as the news spread to the other canteens hard by they were reinforced, and as the Austrian barracks were in sight, some of their men leaped over the wall and very soon there was a pretty general melée of the description that may be seen in any English garrison town where two regiments do not harmonize. Four Germans got clouted so severely as to have to go into hospital, and six others were scratched but have not been absent from duty. One Austrian has had to go into the doctor's care, and five are said to have been bruised like their six quondam friends of the other side.

The whole thing was finer as a spectacle than a fight, and was viewed by some civilian foreigners with the greatest interest, the glass was for a time like a Yorkshire football-match when town feeling runs high, and the referee is weak.

The authorities are investigating the matter and are quite aware how these proceedings are misunderstood by the Chinese who, by the bye, fed in all directions from the scene in a state of panic.

We may add, to show the local genesis of the 'three black crosses,' that the accounts which reached us on Tuesday night gave the preposterous issue of five killed and twenty wounded, but up to date, which is that of yesterday morning, the ascertained facts are those given above. We may state that in normal circumstances the Germans and Austrians are the very best of friends, and it is expected that they will be so again, notwithstanding these recent marks of unbecoming and affection. — P. and T. Times, April 16.

TO PREVENT CROUP.

BEGIN in time. The first symptom is hoarseness, this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given, all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in given this remedy as it contains nothing injurious. It always cures and cures quickly. WHAT IS A COUGH?

A systematic effort to expel the mucus from the bronchial tubes. A cold causes a more abundant secretion of mucus, and when the lungs and bronchial tubes are inflamed, they are extremely sensitive to the irritation. Unless care is taken, the cold may result in pneumonia, which is a very serious disease. If the cold is a lingering one, the more leisurely but equally fatal consumption may set in. Do not neglect a cold or cough. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It always cures and cures quickly. For sale by All Dealers; WATKINS Ltd., General Agents.

'Tatoh's' Suggestion.

Why (asks Mr G. R. Sims) has it not occurred to some enterprising oyster merchant to attach a coupon to every oyster carrying with it a hundred-pound insurance in case of illness, or a thousand in case of death within a fortnight?

Bills Ranges.

One and a half lakhs are entered in the Indian estimates for providing Volunteer Corps in India with ranges for Lee Metford rifles which are now being distributed, and an endeavour will be made to complete the necessary alterations this year.

Presentation.

On the occasion of his approaching marriage, Mr B. Giles, British Assessor at the Mixed Court, Shanghai, was presented by the members of the Bar with two silver convertible entrée dishes and a set of breakfast dishes. Mr Francis Ellis made the presentation, and Mr Giles acknowledged in suitable terms.

Shanghai Ice Company.

It is generally known (says the N.C. Daily News) that there is a movement among some of the dissatisfied shareholders in the Ice Company to secure a change of management, and a circular has been sent round asking for proxies. We learn that further particulars in connection with the Company will shortly be circulated, and it would be well probably for the shareholders not to give away their proxies before these particulars have reached them.

A Common Failing.

Finding employment for boys who have left school gives rise to difficulty at Penang. Generally the boys will not hear of taking to any trade or calling which requires early rising. This is a main point with engineering firms, who now find that King boys are almost the only ones who can get up early enough to qualify as apprentices or learners. Quill-driving meets with preference from its admitting of late rising. We believe the same difficulty is experienced in Hongkong, where some boys have, in addition, a strong aversion to work of any kind.

Presentation to Colonel Mackenzie.

The Shanghai Mercury of the 25th inst. reports:—Yesterday the N. C. O. of B. Company presented Colonel Mackenzie, the late commander of the S.V.C., with a framed photograph of the N. C. O. of B. Company, along with a highly appreciative letter, in token of the regard and esteem in which Colonel Mackenzie was held by them, and as testifying to the value of his labours on behalf of the Company and the S. V. C. Colonel Mackenzie becomes Secretary to the Amoy Municipality.

Weihaiwei Mail Service.

The N.C. Daily News of the 24th inst. says:—We are courteously informed, through the Acting Chief Justice, that an agreement has been signed, as between the Commissioner representing the British Government at Weihaiwei and Messrs Butterfield and Swire on behalf of the China Navigation Company, by virtue of which the mail service to that port will be accelerated and improved. The agreement provides that a weekly steamer shall leave Shanghai for Weihaiwei within 24 hours, or in any event within 48 hours, of the arrival at this port of the French and English mail from Europe. There will also be a weekly steamer from Weihaiwei to Shanghai. It is provided that the exact date and hour of the departure of any steamer from Shanghai is to be published in some daily paper circulating in Shanghai. The Company, immediately after the departure of each steamer, shall telegraph to the port of destination the date and hour of such departure. In consideration of these facilities the British Government will pay the China Navigation Company a small subsidy.

The Philippines Peso.

Judging by the designs, the Philippine peso will be a rather striking coin. It has been designed by a Filipino, Sr. Melcio Figueroa, and is to come into circulation on July 4. The obverse bears an allegorical female figure striking with a hammer on an anvil, with a smoking volcano in the distance and the legend 'Un Peso Filipino,' the obverse the familiar eagle standing upon forked lightning surmounted by stars and half encircled by a wreath. The legend on this side is 'United States of America' and the date.

Sale of the 'Est' and 'Firebrand'.

At 3 yesterday afternoon, Mr Hough, of Messrs Hughes and Hough, Government Auctioneers, offered for sale two H. M. unprotected gunboats, the Est and Firebrand, which were discarded by the Admiralty. The Est was built by Hawthorn, of Jarro, in 1877; at a cost of £21,112, and left Sheerness for the China Station in 1878. The Firebrand, which was built a year after the Est, was launched by Thompson of Glasgow, at a cost of £22,800, and has been at the China Station for upwards of twenty years. Captain Robinson started the bidding for the Est with $4,000, which soon rose to $5,000, and then onward to $5,500, until it reached $10,300, which price was offered by Mr Chin Koo, before the drop of the hammer. $5,000 was offered by a Chinaman for the Firebrand, and the bidding soon rose to $16,000, which price was offered by Mr Chee Wo, who secured it.

Ferry Launch Sunk.

While the Chinese ferry-launch Man Yik, crowded with passengers, was towing a large junk laden with timber, from the Yunnan ferry wharf to a godown pier, she accidentally struck a rock opposite the pier. Her whistle was blown for help, but before the launches Cheng-Yik and Ling Yik, which were near, could reach the scene, the Man Yik sank. Luckily for the passengers and crew, they all managed to get ashore after a good ducking.

Solidifying Crude Oil.

A new process of solidifying crude oil has been brought out by a Chicago company. A large plant for turning out the new briquettes—a thousand tons of them a day—is, according to report, to be built at Port Arthur, in Texas, as a forerunner of several others in some of the newer American oil districts, and the briquettes are to be supplied at tidewater at a cost of production of about $1.20 a ton. Their heat value, when made from Beaumont, Texas, oil, is said to be about 18,000 B. T. U. per pound—slightly less than that of the oil originally. Trials made with some of the briquettes are said to have shown that they burn with a surface downward, leaving practically no residuum.

Jews Butchered.

A New York telegram, dated 24th inst., reports:—Serious antisemitic riots are in progress in Western Russia. Over three hundred Jews have been butchered at Bessarabia on the Russian-Hungarian border. The recent edict of the Czar is thought to be responsible for the disorders. The Jews find little consolation in the toleration edict. They are seeking to migrate in great numbers to escape the persecution which the recent measure has augmented. Bessarabia is a city near the border between Russia and Hungary which has in the past been a bone of contention fought over by the two countries. During the trouble of 1877 it was in dispute and when peace was established it was acknowledged to be in Russian territory.

France and Kwangsi.

The Universal Gazette (a native paper published in Shanghai) stated on the 25th April that Governor Wang Chih-chun of Kwangsi has concluded an agreement with the French that the latter are to contribute capital and troops for quelling the Kwangsi Rebellion. This is such a vital matter that when the Kwangtung (Canton) and Kwangsi merchants of this Port heard of it, circulars were distributed yesterday and to-day in the settlements calling a public meeting of merchants from those two Provinces and those of other provinces at Chang Su-ho's Garden, for the purpose of deciding on a remedy, as French interference would lead to annexation of the southern provinces by France and eventually to partitioning of China by the different countries.

Curious Naturalisation Question.

A curious naturalisation question has cropped up in New South Wales. A Chinese trader named Lee took out naturalisation papers there. He then went to China and married one of his own race. In August last, Lee brought his wife and two children to Sydney. Mrs. Lee was admitted without question, but a polltax of £100 was demanded for each child. Lee objected and applied to Government. It was found that Lee was only a naturalised British subject while he was on British soil, and that each time he went to China he was transformed into a Chinese subject. The law had come to such a ridiculous pass that a naturalised British subject could bring his admittedly alien wife into New South Wales free of poll tax, but had to pay £100 a head for his children. Lee paid the amount under protest.

Mediterranean Fever.

Surgeon F. J. A. Dalton, of the British Navy, who has just completed a term of office on the staff at the Malta Naval Hospital, has devoted two years in research work on Mediterranean fever, and in a report he has furnished to the Admiralty he says he has come to the conclusion that the name Mediterranean fever is a misnomer, as the disease is by no means confined to the Mediterranean littoral. He has it on excellent authority that it occurs in India, South Africa, China, Straits Settlements, South America, and the West Indies. He is of opinion that it is an air-borne disease, and he arrives at this conclusion chiefly by a process of exclusion of the other possible sources of infection such as water, food, and drink, bites of insects, etc., and also from the fact that the disease is contracted under varying sanitary conditions, in which the only common factor appears to be the air.
